ORDER:

1. In the representation 10th read above, the Secretary/Correspondent, Bhavani Educational and Rural Development Society, Suryapet, Nalgonda, has submitted that their Society has applied for permission to establish Bhavani School of Nursing at Suryapet, Aparna School of Nursing at Nakerikal and Aparna School of Nursing at Nalgonda based on the notification issued by Indian Nursing Council, New Delhi. Based on their applications, an inspection team visited their proposed schools of nursing in the month of December 2004 and submitted inspection report to Director, Medical Education and the Director, Medical Education recommended their proposals for establishment of Schools of Nursing to Government of Andhra Pradesh. Further, on the instructions of the Government the High Power committee has again inspected their Schools in the month of October, 2005 and submitted report to Government. He has requested the Government to look into the matter and issue orders / Essentiality Certificate to start the above said Schools of Nursing.

2. In the letter 11th read above, a copy of the representation of the Secretary/Correspondent, Bhavani Educational and Rural Development Society, Suryapet, Nalgonda was forwarded to the Chairman, High Power Committee for his remarks in the matter.

3. In the letter 12th read above, the Chairman, High Power Committee has reported that Bhavani Educational Society, Suryapet, has submitted (3) proposals, one for starting Bhavani School of Nursing at Suryapet; 2nd proposal to start Aparna School of Nursing at Nakerikal, and 3rd proposal to start Aparna School of Nursing at Nalgonda in response to the notification issued by the Indian Nursing Council in the year 2004. All the applications were submitted in the office of the Director of Medical Education. Accordingly, the Director of Medical Education A.P., Hyderabad vide Memo, dt:25-01-2005 has constituted a two member committee with nursing professionals to inspect proposed Bhavani School of Nursing, Suryapet, and the said committee has submitted report on 29-01-2005 to the Director of Medical Education stating that “ infrastructure, clinical facilities proposed are adequate, and recommended for No Objection/Essentiality Certificate for intake of 60 students for the year 2005 – 2006”. But, before any further steps could be taken, the present High Power Committee was constituted and as per Government orders, the proposal in question was forwarded to the District Level Team vide his office Memo Rc.No.566/HPC/2004, dt:30-09-2005 for verification of availability of the infrastructure. Accordingly, the District Level Team vide Lr.No.E6/OMC/6269-4/04/3999, dt:26-10-2005 has submitted a report stating that “ infrastructure facilities are adequate for 60 students and satisfactory, clinical facilities proposed are adequate and satisfactory”. The same was forwarded to Government vide his office Lr.No.566/HPC/2005, dt:24-11-2005 recommending to issue No Objection Certificate/Essentiality Certificate in respect of the above said School of Nursing.

PTO.

4. The Chairman, High Power Committee has also stated that in respect of Aparna School of Nursing, Nakerikal, the Director of Medical Education A.P., Hyderabad, vide Memo Rc.No.31753/NEA/2004 dt:06-11-2004 has constituted a two member committee with nursing professionals to inspect the said School of Nursing proposed at Nakerikal, and to submit the report. Accordingly, the said committee has submitted inspection report stating that “Aprana School of Nursing, Nakerikal, is suitable to start GNM course for the Academic year 2005 – 2006 and recommended to issue No objection / Essentiality Certificate. There is no School of Nursing in Nakerikal, Nalgonda District”. Subsequently the Director of Medical Education, vide letter Rc.No.31752/NEA/2004 dt:11-11-2004, has submitted a report to Government to issue necessary orders in the matter. The Government vide Memo Rc.No.24197/K2/2004-1, dt:20-11-2004 pointed out some lapses and returned the proposal in question to the Director of Medical Education, A.P., Hyderabad. In turn, the applicant has complied with the lapses pointed out therein and the Director of Medical Education, vide Lr.Rc.No.31753/NEA/2004, dt:03-01-2005 has requested the Government to issue No Objection Certificate/Essentiality Certificate in the matter. But before any further steps could be taken, the present High Power Committee was constitute and as per the Government orders, the proposal in question was forwarded to the District Level Team vide his office Memo Rc.No.31753/HPC/2004, dt:23-09-2005 for verification of the infrastructure. The District Level Team has submitted their report stating that “ sixty (60) students / year as per the facilities. No similar Schools in neighbouring areas, hence better potential for improvement. The infrastructure can be enhanced as and when students intake increases as per INC norms” and the said report was forwarded to the Government vide Lr. Rc.No.31753/HPC/2004, dt:24-11-2005 requesting the Government to issue No Objection / Essentiality Certificate in respect of the above said School of Nursing.

5. The Chairman, High Power Committee has further stated that in respect of the proposal for establishment of Aparna School of Nursing at Nalgonda, the Director of Medical Education A.P., Hyderabad, vide Memo Rc.No.31752/NEA/2004, dt:06-11-2004 has constituted a two member committee with Nursing Professionals to inspect the proposed School of Nursing. Accordingly, the said committee has submitted their report stating that “ Aparna School of Nursing, Nalgonda is suitable to start GNM courses for the academic year 2005-2006. Infrastructure as per INC norms. Recommended to issue No Objection/ Essentiality Certificate”. Subsequently, the Director of Medical Education, A.P., Hyderabad vide Lr. No. 31752/NEA/ 2004, dt: 11-11-2004 has forwarded the said report to Government requesting to issue necessary orders in the matter. The Government vide Memo Rc. No. 24197/K2/2004-1, dated: 20-11-2004, have pointed out some lapses and returned the proposal in question to the Director of Medical Education, A.P., Hyderabad. In turn, the applicant has complied with the lapses pointed out therein and the Director of Medical Education, AP., Hyderabad, vide his letter Rc. No. 31753/NEA/ 2004, dt: 03.01.2005 has once again requested the Government to issue No Objection Certificate/ Essentiality Certificate in the matter. But, before any further steps could be taken, the present High Power Committee was constituted and as per the Government orders his office vide Memo Rc. No. 31752/HPC/2004,dt: 23- 09 -2005 the proposal in question was forwarded to the District Level Team for verification of the infrastructure available. The District Level Team has submitted their report vide Lr.No.E6/OMC/6269-1/OMC/05 dt:29-10-2005 stating that “Adequate infrastructure and clinical facilities are available. Hence, it is recommended for the intake 60 candidate per annum as per INC Rules” and the said report was forwarded to the Government vide Lr.Rc.No.31752/HPC/2004 dt:24-11-2005 requesting the Govt to issue Essentiality Certificate / No Objection Certificate in respect of the above said School of Nursing.

6. The Chairman, High Power Committee has informed that the Indian Nursing Council in its meeting held on 22-12-2000, has resolved that from the year 2005, INC will not consider any proposal for opening of new Schools of Nursing. It has further resolved in the meeting held on 28-02-2001 that the council will work out strategies so that by 2010 all Schools of Nursing be converted into Colleges of Nursing. In light of the above resolution, the Government of A.P., issued G.O. Ms.No.165 HM&FW(K2)Department, dt:23-05-2005 stating that ‘No Essentiality Certificate/ permission for establishment of Nursing Schools be issued from the academic year 2006 to 2007 onwards’. Reiterating the stand taken in G.O.Ms.No.165, the Government of Andhra Pradesh have passed G.O.Ms.No.321 HM&FW(K2)Department, dt:05-08-2006 stating along with other things as follows “the fee collected from the applicants for establishment of Nursing Schools, who applied earlier in response to the notification issued in 2003 by Indian Nursing Council in 2004 and also for enhancement of seats to Nursing Schools be refunded”. In the year 2004 the calendar of events instructing that those who are interested to apply for establishment of Schools/College of Nursing should apply on or before 31-01-2005 and basing on the said calendar of events, the applicant has submitted three proposals in question for establishment of School of Nursing. But, in view of para 7 of G.O.Ms.No.321, HM&FW(K2)Deptt.,dt:05-08-2006 (i.e., The fee collected from the applicants for establishment of Nursing Schools, who applied earlier in response to notification issued in 2003 and by Indian Nursing Council in 2004, and also for enhancement of seats to Nursing Schools shall be refunded) three (3) proposals in question were rejected and the fee collected covering expenses for inspection fee were returned to the society.

7. The Chairman, High Power Committee has further stated that Indian Nursing Council, in its proceedings 8th read above, has pleased to inform that INC resolved that upgrading of Schools of Nursing (GNM) to Colleges of Nursing is to be kept in abeyance and further mentioned that the Government of A.P., may reconsider accepting the proposals to start Schools of Nursing provided infrastructure was available. In view of the above circumstances, the Chairman, High Power Committee has requested the Government to issue appropriate orders in the matter.

8. After careful consideration of the matter and keeping in view of the recommendation of the Director of Medical Education vide reference 6th and 7th read above and also on the recommendation of the Chairman, High Power Committee vide reference 12th read above, for the issue of Essentiality Certificate / No Objection Certificate and also keeping in view the proceedings F.No.18-2 (Govt.) 2005 of the Indian Nursing Council, dt.31-3-2006, and in exercise of the powers conferred under rule 38 under section 11 (2) (b) of Andhra Pradesh Nursing and Midwives (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1964 and sub rule (iii) of rule 12 of Andhra Pradesh General Nurse Training Institutions (Admissions into General Nurse Training and Grant of permission to Private Schools of Nursing) Rules, 1997 made under section 99 of Andhra Pradesh Education Act, 1982, Government have decided to consider favourably the request of the Bhavani Educational and Rural Development Society, Suryapet, Nalgonda District and accordingly hereby accord permission to establish Bhavani School of Nursing, Suryapet, Nalgonda District and Aparna School of Nursing, Nalgonda, Nalgonda District and to start GNM course of 3 years duration with an intake capacity of 50 (fifty) in each school.
